Just Trains, Photograph, 20 x 20 by Elvira Peretsman

FIRST PLACE AWARD

Juror's Statement

One of things in particular that caught my eye was the vantage point from which this was taken. But what really makes the picture pop is the beautiful contrast between the blue and the gold in the image.

Funding is made possible in part by the New Jersey State Council on the Arts/Department of State, a Partner Agency of the National Endowment for the Arts through a grant to the Burlington County Board of County Commissioners.

About the Juror

Frank T. Smith

Photography is my passion – both in taking the pictures as well as the post processing techniques that I use.

I am an artist, educator and mentor as well as an outdoor enthusiast photographer and philanthropic photojournalist who has traveled the globe capturing people, cultures, landscapes and architecture, telling a story through my photographs.

I believe photography is a constantly changing art form and as such I try to stay current by teaching workshops & classes every year. My goal is to help others see the un-obvious and to instill the desire for creativity.

My work has been featured in the media, print, exhibits and in philanthropic campaigns.

I was published in the Camera in the Wild (Fall 2018) issue; International Opulence (June 2017) and in Outdoor Photography (December 2013). In March 2020 I was interviewed on PBS, Counter Culture program.

Hitchcock Store, Photograph, 18 x 24 by Bonnie Rovere
SECOND PLACE AWARD

Juror's Statement

The composition is right on and the moody affect wants to take me into the image. I really like the soft lights from the interior and of course Hitchcock's brief shadow.

Street Painter, Photograph, 12 x 12 by John Mottola
THIRD PLACE AWARD

Juror's Statement

I had to look closely at this image to understand that it was not a picture of a picture. The photographer did a very good job in compositing the commensurate background with the primary subject.

Honorable Mentions

Super Moon and Miss Liberty, Photograph, 8 x 12 by Patricia Worley
HONORABLE MENTION

Juror's Statement

I like the well done contrast between Ms. Liberty and the golden moon. The positioning of the moon above her head and between her arm is done very well. The creativity of this shot is apparent.

Orange Glow, Photograph, 20 x 20 by Elvira Peretsman
HONORABLE MENTION

Juror's Statement

The thing that first caught my eye was the beautiful soft tones in this image. The lighting is spot on. The only thing that kept this from a higher position was that there were a couple of elements that went outside of the frame.

Silhouette in a Narrow Alley, Photograph, 22 x 18 by Elvira Peretsman
HONORABLE MENTION

Juror's Statement

I really like the energy and the vibe of this image. It is framed well and very creative with how the shadow appears.
