Night Owl, Ink, 10 x 8" by Tina Armando

The detail of the lines and the angle of the head contribute well to the feeling of the nocturnal title.

Cat and Bird, Ceramic, 8 x 15" by Bluma Smith

What delightful and well thought out whimsy..

Flowers in Vase, Watercolor, 5 x 7" by Joseph Hughes

There is such a delicate beauty in this painting.

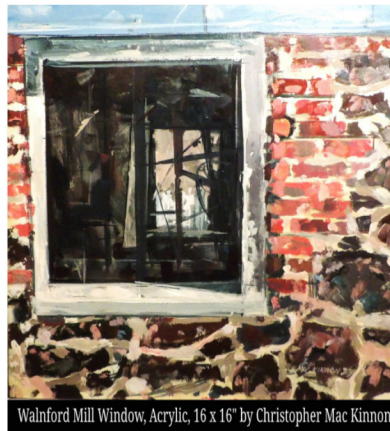

AWARDS OF EXCELLENCE

Thank You to our Juror for the thoughtful statements and all who submitted their beautiful work!
Congratulations to the Award Recipients!

He Disappeared into the Silence of Small Gestures, Mixed Media, 40 x 30" by Art Smith

What mystery...it looks like a mysterious poem that makes you want to stay, wander, and listen to it over and over.

Walnford Mill Window, Acrylic, 16 x 16" by Christopher Mac Kinnon

The warmth or the bright red on the bricks in the foreground implies a warmth on your back, making you feel comforted, yet looking through the series of windows seems to imply some kind of darkness through the times of this space. Evocative work...

Still Life W/Brushes, Oil, 30 x 28" by Larry Chestnut

The symmetry, contrast, color palette create such a contained feeling of resting action. The brown space at the top really draws the whole painting down to the feeling of having just stepped away.

Funding is made possible in part by the New Jersey State Council on the Arts/Department of State, a Partner Agency of the National Endowment for the Arts through a grant to the Burlington County Board of County Commissioners.
