Think of the Possibilities, Acrylic, 18 x 18 by Maria Morales

FIRST PLACE AWARD

Juror's Statement

One thing I ask myself with portraiture is,
Do I feel the sitters emotional existence?

The dreamy expression and gesture,
combined with the light and textural quality created an interesting painting where I can say, yes!

Funding is made possible in part by the New Jersey State Council on the Arts/Department of State, a Partner Agency of the National Endowment for the Arts through a grant to the Burlington County Board of County Commissioners.

Portrait Of A Young Girl In Winter Gear, Watercolor, 8.5 X 11 by Gwendolyn Heffron

SECOND PLACE AWARD

Juror's Statement

This is a good example of how you don't need a lot of information to create a compelling portrait. The diagonals in the composition along with the balance of color vs black/white framing just her eyes really grabs my attention.

Old Guys Supper Club, Oil, 23 x 19 by Christine Angelini-Tanfani

THIRD PLACE AWARD

Juror's Statement

The folk art quality to this one is really charming. The divided room, angled table, and gesture of all six men tell a story of the group, but their gestures and expressions show their uniqueness as individuals.

Funding is made possible in part by the New Jersey State Council on the Arts/Department of State, a Partner Agency of the National Endowment for the Arts through a grant to the Burlington County Board of County Commissioners.

Honorable Mentions

SOMEWHERE, Photograph, 20 x 16 by Noelle Noyes
HONORABLE MENTION

Juror's Statement
What a moment, to capture this unsure kitty in such a vibrant environment! The orange wall adds an area of rest to the composition.

Self Portrait, Oil, 4.5 x 6.5 by Susan Barnes
HONORABLE MENTION

Juror's Statement
The painterly brushwork, along with the light effect, create a lovely, soft portrait.

Feeny SP III, Mixed media, 12 x 12 by Jeff Feeny
HONORABLE MENTION

Juror's Statement
Color, texture, and skillfully rendered, this piece has a graphic nature that draws the viewer.
