Acrylic Painting

Wednesday, 9 a.m.- 12 p.m.

March 7,14,21,28, April 4, 11

Member Cost: $200 per session

Non-Member Cost: $215

Instructor: Bill Ternay

Class size: min 5: max. 10

In this class students will explore the versatile medium of Acrylics. Your instructor, Bill Ternay, will introduce techniques unique to the medium, how it is different than other water-based mediums, and how best to exploit these qualities in the creation of paintings. During our time together we will discuss how to manipulate the medium for control of edges, values, opacity, transparency, color harmony, and design aesthetically pleasing compositions.

With acrylics, the risks are minimal and the rewards surprising. And we will have fun along the way.

Watercolor

Wednesday,1– 4 p.m.

March 7,14,21,28, April 4,11

Member Cost: $200 per session

Non-Member Cost: $215

Instructor: Bill Ternay

Class size: min 5: max. 10

In this class students will explore the versatile and always challenging medium of water color. Leave your fears at home and give yourself permission to indulge your "Beginner's Mind."

Bill Ternay, former President of the Philadelphia Water Color Society, will introduce students to techniques unique to this elegant medium. You will learn when to put pigment into a wet wash, and the importance of understanding the "drying cycle" of water on the page.

Bill will give you various handouts relating to composition, values, edges, transparency, glazes, and most importantly, understanding the language of color.

Bead Tapestry – Weaving a bead tapestry on a loom

Wednesday, 6:30-8:30 p.m.

March 7,14,21,28, April 4,11

Member Cost: $150

Non-Member Cost: $165

Materials cost per participant: $30.

Class size: Min. 3 – Max. 8

Instructor: Paul McAllister

In this class participants will work on 3 different bead tapestries of increasing size. We will start with a small bracelet, we will complete a night light, and we will plan and begin a framed tapestry. Participants will be given a simple loom and all materials (beads, weft and warp threads, needles, and framing matte) to complete the 3 projects. Participants will keep the loom and beading needles for their own. No previous experience of loom weaving is needed.
