Winter Friend, Monoprint, 10 x 8" by Tina Armando

SECOND PLACE AWARD

Juror's Statement

Feels like a nostalgic book illustration. Interesting abstract shapes of the garden next to the realism of the bird are an unusual perfect pairing.

Juror's Statement

Perfect title. The warm tones of the late day drifting into the cool colors of the looming night - I love the mixture of the tones between the two. Good capture!

Late Afternoon, Watercolor, 8.5 x 11.5" by Richard Hoffman

HONORABLE MENTIONS

Tea Roses, Oil, 10 x 10" by Doris Peltzman

Juror's Statement

A feeling of movement in the bouquet draws your eye to what appears to be the light source of a window bringing the glow to the flowers.

Girl in Hand #4, Pen, 5 x 5.5" by Allen Pitts

Juror's Statement

Surreal depiction making the viewer decide what it evokes to them.

Hot Peppers, Watercolor, 7 x 9" by Joanne Perkins

Juror's Statement

Light and shadow make interesting shapes and movement making the composition slightly abstract.

Necklace, Sterling silver/Aquamarine, 1 x 1.5"/18" chain by Carolyn Jones

Juror's Statement

The craft of hand sawing and shaping developed into a lovely and unique wearable piece of art.

The Obverse of Relativity, Digital Collage, 9 x 12" by Joey Harness

Juror's Statement

This is a fun and thought provoking collage, with the figure looking perplexed but slightly uninterested in the 'new' formula for relativity.
